Listening

B) The role of teenagers in family decision-making is big. As a teenager myself I often participate in family discussions about family budget and decisions regarding problems and enemies. Parents should listen to their children. Sometimes, some English idioms and others might be useful for the family.

If the love between parents is fading away, teenagers can influence it. It will have a great impact that teenagers have on family decision-making is important, thus children can keep in touch with their parents.
